

A.M.

THE AIA MOBILE CHAPTER TURNED THOMPSON ENGINEERING INTO THE PLACE TO BE FOR LEARNING, NETWORKING, AND RACKING UP SOME SERIOUSLY USEFUL CEUS.

THE DAY KICKED OFF THE RIGHT WAY—with breakfast and registration, because no architect should ever be asked to learn before caffeine.

THE MORNING SESSIONS SET THE TONE WITH SMART, PRACTICAL, AND SURPRISINGLY ENGAGING CEUS FROM OLD CASTLE, GATE PRECAST, AND SHERWIN-WILLIAMS. REAL-WORLD KNOWLEDGE, REAL TAKEAWAYS, AND NO ONE CHECKING THEIR WATCH—ALWAYS A GOOD SIGN.

BY LUNCHTIME, BRAINS WERE FULL AND SO WERE PLATES. ATTENDEES HAD THE CHANCE TO VISIT EXHIBITOR BOOTHS, CONNECT ONE-ON-ONE, AND DIVE INTO PRODUCT INFO STRAIGHT FROM THE EXPERTS—THE KIND OF CONVERSATIONS THAT ACTUALLY STICK LONG AFTER THE SLIDES ARE GONE.

P.M. THE AFTERNOON KEPT THE MOMENTUM GOING WITH CEUS FROM WILL & PIERCE AGENCY, PORCELANOSA, INTERFACE, AND TULL BROTHERS—A LINEUP THAT COVERED EVERYTHING FROM MATERIALS TO STRATEGY, ALL DELIVERED WITH ENERGY THAT CARRIED US STRAIGHT INTO THE FINAL ACT.

AND WHAT BETTER WAY TO WRAP UP A DAY PACKED WITH LEARNING THAN A HAPPY HOUR AND TRADE SHOW? GREAT CONVERSATIONS, RELAXED VIBES, AND A CHANCE TO RECONNECT WITH COLLEAGUES AND INDUSTRY PARTNERS MADE FOR THE PERFECT ENDING.

ALL IN ALL, IT WAS A FULL DAY OF LEARNING, CEUS, AND COMMUNITY—THE KIND THAT REMINDS US WHY THESE EVENTS MATTER AND WHY AIA MOBILE CONTINUES TO SHOW UP STRONG.
